Social Narrative

Attending Community at St. Peter's Anglican Church, 211 Willis st.

I am going to watch the play Community at St Peter's Anglican Church, 211 Willis st.

I will enter the venue from the side. Access is on Ghuznee street. This will be signposted.

David and Sameena will be waiting for me by the entrance. They will help me find a place to sit. I may have to wait a few minutes before I go in.

David

Sameena

The seats will be grouped around tables.

When everyone is inside. Sameena will talk to me about the show. The performer, Emma, will introduce herself.

Emma

Emma plays four different characters. They all wear the same clothing, but their facial expressions, voices, and body language are different.

Johann

Lily

Steve

Jo

The toilets are at the back of the room. I can go to the toilet at any time

During the show, I am allowed to move around if I need to, but I need to let Emma have space to perform.

Sameena will be sitting by the door. If I need a break, she can take me to a safe space.

Emma might ask me to interact during the show, I can shake my head if I don't want to participate.

Emma may also speak to me directly, but I don't have to reply if I don't want to.

I will be asked to work on a poster, I don't have to do this if I don't want to.

There are a few loud noises in the show. There are thunder sounds, banging, and dream sound effects. Emma might also raise her voice. I can cover my ears or wear earplugs or wear noise cancelling headphones if I like.

There are some moments in the show where the lights turn off, flash, or change colour. I can cover my eyes if I need to.

There is one scene with a lot of sound effects and flashing lights. The characters also act differently than normal. I can block my ears or cover my eyes if I want to.

There is a moment in the show where Emma suggests for everyone to leave, but it is not the end of the show yet. The show is finished once Emma has bowed and left the room.

When Emma bows I can clap. I don't have to clap if I don't want to.

When the show is finished, I will leave through the same door I came in.
